Dear LISVH Family Member:

As we complete day 444 in our fight against the novel Coronavirus (COVID-19), we are extremely pleased to report that we remain stable at this time. Once again, there are no cases of the novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) at the Home; this includes our total resident population and our entire staff. While we remain in a good place, we continue to conduct ongoing swab testing to stay ahead of any potential return of the virus.

Yesterday, we had our monthly Family Council Zoom meeting. We would like to thank all of the families on the call for their participation. At the meeting, we were able to give a current overview of the Home and respond to individual family questions. Please save the date for our next Family Council Zoom Meeting, which will be held on Friday, June 25 at 11:00 AM.

We want to wish all a very special Memorial Day weekend. As you know, Memorial Day here at the Long Island State Veterans Home is a very solemn holiday. We will spend the day remembering those who paid the ultimate sacrifice to protect the freedoms we cherish as Americans. We will be conducting a virtual Memorial Day ceremony on Monday, May 31, and we will broadcast it over Chanel 67 for all our residents to enjoy. In addition, our families can participate in this virtual ceremony via our website or Facebook page. Furthermore, Chef Jeff and the Morrison's Team will prepare a special holiday lunch that will include St. Louis BBQ ribs, corn on the cob, homemade coleslaw, and rainbow ices. As always, we offer alternative for those on special diets.

In closing, please know that we are always available to you. Have a great Memorial Day holiday weekend.

Sincerely,

Fred S. Sganga, FACHE
